HUNTINGTON PARK POLICE ACTIVITIES LEAGUE—TEEN POLICE ACADEMY

Teen Police Academy

In Support of our Mission to further promote positive “teamwork” relationships between our Community and the Police., the Huntington Park Teen Police Academy was created to provide the youth in our community the opportunity to acquire firsthand knowledge on the operations of the Police Department.

The Teen Police Academy is another Program sponsored by the Huntington Park Police Activities League, which further supports the main objective: to encourage young people to become productive young adults by promoting the development of important core values thereby, deterring juvenile delinquency.

The Teen Police Academy is dedicated to increasing an understanding between the youth of our community and our Police Department through fun and exciting interactive education; we are dedicated to making the Teen Police Academy a positive, rewarding and enlightening experience.

How does it work?
